

Hemant Sahai

Founding Partner | HSA Advocates

Hemant Sahai is the Founding Partner of HSA Advocates and has spent over three decades advising on some of India's most complex and high-impact infrastructure and energy projects. His body of work spans the entire lifecycle of large public-private partnership projects, from structuring of concession and competitive bidding documents to financing, implementation, and navigating the regulatory environment.